Ans 11) The Chinese economy may have flourished post 1978 but there are nonetheless a few adverse effects of this model of development.

1) The new Chinese economy as opposed to the earlier one faced problems of large scale unemployment. Unemployment grew to a 100 million.

2) The worse condition for females and salaries to females grew from bad to worse. This condition was as bad as 18th / 19th century Europe.

3) There was a report of growing desertification in high places along with increasing levels of pollution.

4) There was a growing divide between the urban dwellers and rural dwellers as well as land and capital possessors.

Ans 12) The traditional notion of security primarily focuses on threats of war and armed attacks.

Alliance →

1) Alliance is a coordinated policy of different member states towards an armed attack. These alliances are formed by signing treaties or through an understanding.

among the states.

2. These alliances were generally formed on the basis of national interests and they changed as national interests changed.

e.g. The US had backed the Islamic groups in Afghanistan against USSR but waged an attack on them when 9/11 - the watershed event occurred.

ADVANTAGES →

1. An alliance protects countries from armed attacks.
e.g. NATO was an alliance formed by US in 1949 which meant that armed attack on any one of the 12 members of NATO would be an armed attack on all of them. This prevented other countries from attacking as an attack by 12 nations on 1 attacker caused mean devastation.

2. It increases the strength of nations relative to others and leads to large scale buildup and acquisition of arms.

e.g. The alliances like NATO, SEATO & CENTO were formed by USA and USSR for this the superpowers provided allies with large scale weapons. This made the smaller ally countries stronger.

Ans 13) A common property resource is something that is common for the entire community.

- 1) forests or rivers.
- 2) The underlying norm here is that the members of the community have both right and duties towards the level of use, type and extent of use of these resources.
The bad part is that factors like increasing population, privatisation, agriculture, urbanification and degradation of ecosystem have caused common property resources to dwindle in size and quality and reduced availability to poor.
- 3) The best way to manage these common property resources is shown in the model of sacred groves. In sacred groves in India are the best way to manage common property resources by the local community.

Ans 14) CONGRESS AS AN IDEOLOGICAL COALITION

1. Congress party during ~~1947-1990~~ the first few decades allowed parties with their own individual identity and constitution to exist within itself. These were popularly called factions and gave strength to Congress.
2. Congress had therefore become a platform for various groups to exhibit their position. The Congress managed to include opposing parties like the radicals, moderates, pacifists and many more.

Community

CONGRESS AS A SOCIAL COALITION

1. The Congress had initially started as a pressure group in 1885 and its aim was to convince the urban elite to British policies. With every civil disobedience movement, the Congress widened its base.
2. Its leadership soon extended from urban, English speaking classes to several agricultural and agrarian-based leaders. Thus by the time India gained independence, Congress was a broad-based party representing Indian diversity in terms of culture, region and religion.

Ques 15) To manage Ans 15) The Naxalite Movement had started in 1967 in the Namkhana police station in Darjeeling Hills with Charu Mazumdar as its leader.

REASONS

1. The Naxalites were a group of Marxist Leninists who believed in armed insurrection to bring out social equality. The rich landowners had all the land and poor were landless. So they used force to snatch land from rich and distribute to poor.
2. Most of the regions where these movements operated were areas with tribes and adivasis and landless peasants who were living in atrocious conditions. So they used radical means for their upliftment.

MEANS TO CRUSH IT

- 1) The government and police had used large scale preventive detention and caused human rights violations which was wrong.
land should be redistributed amongst landless peasants by the government and they should be granted minimum wages.
- 2) Moreover, constitutional safeguards should be given to adivasis and tribes and development programmes for their upliftment should be carried out by government.

- (Ans 16) The Indian model of mixed economy had both aspects of public & private sector. This had led to the following outcomes:
1. During the first five year plan focus was on agriculture. land reforms like abolition of zamindari and land consolidation were carried out. From every land

- still continued to be in the hands of rich landowning classes.
2. Some of the major developmental projects like Bhakra Nangal dam and Hirakud dam were built. There was exponential growth in communication & technology related areas. However, private sector had limited stimulus to grow.
  3. Green Revolution had led to a spur in agriculture production in regions like Haryana, Uttar Pradesh, however poor farmers had remained poor whereas prosperous areas flourished.
  4. Corruption had grown in the public sector and institutions were imposed on private sector causing people to lose faith in planning.
- The five year plans under this model were best at utilising developmental goals however economy grew at a sluggish rate of 3 to 3.5%.

CONSEQUENCES OF PARTITION → CREATION OF PAKISTAN & INDIA

Mahatma Gandhi had rightly said that partition was a disaster for mankind as it had caused a lot of bloodshed. The consequences of which are as follows -

1. Region like Sikhs, Amritsar and Lahore had become communal zones where Hindus stayed away from Muslims and Muslims away from Hindus. There was large scale communal violence and loss of life.
2. Minorities on both sides of the borders were worst sufferers. When they moved to the other side on foot, they were killed, maimed, raped or looted. Children were separated from parents.
3. Women on both sides of the border were abducted and forced to convert to the religion of abductor. Some women were killed by family members to preserve family honor.
4. Minorities were living in refugee camps. Some lived for years with a loss of family, property and assets. Writers and poets were expressing their feeling through writings and 'division of hearts had taken place'.
5. Even properties liabilities and assets like typewriters, chairs were divided between India & Pakistan.
6. Members of the police and government were divided on the basis of religion and a breakdown of hearts was clearly seen.

- Aus 2.3) The Soviet Union Disintegrated because of various developments like-
1. ECONOMIC STAGNATION OF USSR
 The economy of USSR had become stagnant as most of the expenses were carried out on arms. Wages though continued to grow but there was a lot of food shortage and consumer industry was becoming inefficient. With the invasion of Afghanistan in 1979 the economic conditions & productivity declined.

2. AUTHORITATIVE COMMUNIST PARTY
 The Communist party which was the only party of USSR was very bureaucratic and authoritarian. There were no checks made by government to correct mistakes. Bureaucrats had more privileges than people.

3. EXCESSIVE MILITARISATION
 The Soviet Union spent much of its resources on keeping its nuclear arsenal up to date. Majority of its resources were spent on maintaining its Labour States (Central Asian Republics)

4. DISRESPECT4. COMPARISON WITH THE WEST

The people of USSR had for years been told that their system was the best. However when they became aware of the technological advances in the west, it came as a psychological shock to them as well as a political shock. Mihail Gorbachev in 1978.

5. GORBACHEV'S POLICIES

Gorbachev had initiated policies of glasnost and perestroika and action in motion forces which couldn't be controlled. Some people thought that he was going too fast and others like members of the government did not agree with him. As a result, people became disillusioned and lost the tie of war.

6.6. NATIONALIST ASPIRATIONS OF REPUBLICS

There was a growing dissatisfaction amongst republics like Estonia, Latvia, Lithuania, Belarus, Ukraine were protesting against the Soviet rule and gradually soviet control over those republics fell. This was the final step in disintegration.

- Ans 24) The UN General Assembly had passed a resolution in 1992 regarding the complaints related to UNSC which were -
1. The Security Council lacks equitable representation.
  2. The Security Council no longer represents the problems of the contemporary world.
  3. Most of the decisions taken by the Security Council represent only the interest of a few western powers.

With respect to these three complaints, the UN Secretary General Kofi Annan consulted the members in 1997 to suggest criteria for membership of the Security Council which are -

1. The country should be a major military power and a major economic power.
2. The country should be a regular contributor to the UN budget and a democracy.
3. The country should be able to make the UN more representative in terms of cultural, diverse economic system and should have a large population.

due to the complain (See 25) The emergency of 1975 is considered a blot on Indian democracy and was controversial because :

Emergency was declared without consulting cabinet members and according to critics on false ground due to internal crisis.

E

Emergency was declared without consulting cabinet members and according to critics on false ground
 Indira Gandhi who was the Prime Minister of India had proposed to the President the need to declare emergency at midnight without the awareness of cabinet ministers. This was controversial as prior to that her election as Prime Minister had been declared invalid. Indira Gandhi gave reasons like internal crisis and restoring peace but critics suggested that the real threat was to the position of India Gandhi herself.

MISUSE OF POWER BY PEOPLE NOT IN AUTHORITY - SANJAY GANDHI
 Sanjay Gandhi who was the son of Prime Minister Indira Gandhi has carried out excessive use of powers but he was not even a part of the government. His role in forceful sterilizations and relocation of poor in Delhi is considered very controversial. This was a sheer abuse of power.

FAILURES OF JUDICIARY TO ACT INDEPENDENTLY & FINDINGS OF SHAR

COMMISSION

In 1976, the Supreme Court declared after accepting the government's plan that people during emergency would not move the court for their arrest. It had succeeded. The High Court of the 42nd amendment is till date on the most controversial. Findings of Shar Commission had shown that the government had carried out excessive preventive detention and arrested 67% opposition leaders and 11,000 other people. The government during emergency had carried out various excesses and abused the powers.

5. NON STATE ACTORS :

If the nation state cannot overcome hegemony then, threat to hegemony will come from other non-state actors like NGOs, international institutions, writers, artists and the Media.

6. COMING TOGETHER OF PEOPLE ALL OVER THE WORLD & CRITICISING USA POLICIES
 Globalisation has increased connectivity. Threat to hegemony therefore, comes from an alliance of people from all over the world. People from all over the world including Americans can come together and criticise the policies of the USA.

(Ques 27) a) Jammu and Kashmir is a diverse socio political region. These regions are Kashmir Valley - The Kashmir valley is the heart of Jammu and Kashmir which has a majority of Muslim Kashmiris with a Hindu speaking minority.

No separate institutions exist
therefore comes over the world of the USA

Jammu - Jammu is a mix of foothills and plains. There is a mix of Sikhs, Hindus, Muslims and people of other origins in this region.

Ladakh - It is a rocky and mountainous region with population equally divided between Buddhists and Muslims.

Roots of Kashmir issue
Kashmir was during independence ruled by a Hindu Ruler - Maharaja Hari Singh who wanted ~~independence~~ independent status for Kashmir. There was another group led by Sheikh Abdullah who wanted political autonomy for Jammu & Kashmir but did not want to join Pakistan.

- 1) On 1947, Pak's tan sent tribal ~~infiltrators~~ infiltrators to capture Kashmir and asked for help part of Kashmir called Azad Kashmir. The Maharaja felt helpless and agreed to join Indian Union.
- 2) The Congress government agreed to help the Maharaja on the condition that he will
- 3) The Congress government agreed to help the Maharaja on the condition that he will

The Maharastra agreed to sign the Instrument of Accession with India. The Indian Union therefore became a part of the Indian Union. The state of Kashmir therefore became a part of the Indian Union because it was situated with mainland. The government promised to hold a plebiscite when situation will normalize. Sheikh Abdullah therefore became the Prime Minister of the State and political autonomy was given to Jammu & Kashmir in 1948.
